Failure to administratively appeal a Board decision may affect your legal rights. See 37 Pa. Code sec. 73. If you wish to appeal a decision, you must file a request for administrative relief with the Board within thirty (30) days of the mailing date of the Board decision. The request shall set forth specifically the factual and legal bases for the allegations. You have the right to an attorney in this appeal and in any subsequent appeal to the Commonwealth Court. You may be entitled to counsel from the Public Defender's Office at no cost. Enclosed with your Board Decision was an Administrative Remedies Form and the names and addresses of all the Chief Public Defenders in the Commonwealth. Any request for a public defender should be sent directly to the Public Defender's Office in the county where you currently reside.
