This instrument is designed only to assist the Board in the exercise of its discretion. In furtherance of the requirement for the Board to give proper consideration to all factors set forth by the Probation and Parole Law, the Board has developed this instrument to assist in its consideration of the information surrounding each case. Notwithstanding any recommendation under this instrument, the Board retains the discretion to deny parole based on any factor that the Probation and Parole Law requires the Board to consider. A recommendation of “Likely to Parole” does not bind the Board to grant parole, nor does it in any way create a right, presumption or reasonable expectation that parole will be granted. Under Pennsylvania Law, parole remains a matter of grace and mercy shown to a prisoner who has demonstrated to the Board’s satisfaction his future ability to function as a law-abiding member of society. The Board may not release a prisoner on parole until the expiration of his minimum term of imprisonment. However, the service of such minimum term does not, in any way, create a right, presumption or reasonable expectation of parole. The Board may, in a proper case, require a prisoner to serve the maximum period of
